World Water's Day. Links: Home. Get Involved. Get Involved. Doctors Without Borders. Doctors Without Borders. The goal of Doctors Without Borders is to put medicine back in the hands of the people. We respond to medical emergencies worldwide, providing emergency medical and surgical care to people whose health has been devastated by violence, neglect, or catastrophe. We also provide primary health care to millions of people, including health assessments and health promotion to help people stay well. We respond to public health crises and epidemics by providing emergency medical care and by conducting medical research to find solutions and improve treatment. As we are guided by our medical ethics and the principles of medical humanitarianism, we are independent and impartial and do not receive financial support or serve as an arm of any government. Our doctors and nurses are volunteers who come from all over the world to serve people in need. Curl up with this truly wholesome, comfort-food style book.
